SACH launches new health initiatives to save children from Gaza, the West Bank and Iraq

On Sunday June 20, Save a Child's Heart celebrated the launch of 2 Middle East Projects for 2010 at the Wolfson Medical Center in Holon, Israel. The projects include a joint project with the Israeli Ministry for Regional Cooperation and the "Heart of the Matter" project, under the European Union's "Partnership for Peace" Programme.

A cocktail reception was followed by heartfelt speeches and a remarkable concert by the Idan Raichel Project.
