SACH Photography Exhibition - Melbourne and Atlanta

July 2008

Dear Friends of SACH,

The SACH Photography Exhibition continues to travel worldwide, drawing the attention of many people and sending out the message of SACH and its mission to the world.

After the official opening of the exhibition at the Library for Foreign Literature in Moscow Tuesday July 8th, 2008, we are now facing two new and exciting events in the coming week:

1. With the help of the Australia-Israel Chamber of Commerce, the SACH Photography Exhibition will be displayed at the Palladium, Crown Towers in Melbourne during a Chamber of Commerce luncheon on Monday, July 14th 2008. Special guest of the event will be Mr. Richard Goyder, Managing Director and CEO of Westfarmers Limited, who will deliver a major keynote address during the event.

After the event in Melbourne the exhibition will be shipped to Sydney, where it will be displayed at the Sydney Opera House during the visit of the Israeli Philharmonic Orchestra - July 26-28. Maestro Zubin Mehta will endorse the exhibition as a Patron of Save a Child's Heart.

2. On the US front, the SACH Photography Exhibition arrived in Atlanta this week and will be displayed at the Saint Joseph's Hospital from July 14-20.

This venue is most suitable for this exhibition as it is Atlanta's oldest hospital and is recognized as a facility with a mission to serve those most in need and to have a commitment to the community.

Best Regards,
Tamar
